Funeral of Mr. Koiner

Richmond, August 11.- Funeral services for George W. Koiner, veteran state commissioner of agriculture, who died yesterday, were conducted this afternoon at the Grace-Covenant Presbyterian church. Rev. Ernest Trice Thompson, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, officiated. Burial was in Hollywood Cemetery here.

Mr. Koiner, 87 years old, was believed to be the oldest state commissioner of agriculture in point of service in the United States, and the oldest department head in Virginia.

Death followed an operation which he underwent three weeks ago. He had been in failing health for several years, but continued work at his office until recently. He had served as commissioner of agriculture and immigration continuously since his appointment by Governor J. Hoge Tyler, in December 1899.

Attends Treasurers' Meeting

R. L. Burke, county treasurer of Appomattox county, will attend the annual sessions of the treasurers' association this week-end at Virginia Beach. Mr. Burke is a past-president of this body. Both Senator Byrd and Governor Price will speak Friday night.

1206 Women Say "Yes" to Query

If 93 out of 100 users picked at random declined they were helped by a medicine, would you believe in its merit? Record of the famous Query among women of leading cities in 12 Southern States shows 1206 out of 1297 users queried say CARDUI helped them. That figures 93 out of 100! What a record!

Women all over the South are eager to tell of their experiences with CARDUI. They were weak, run-down, nervous. Those are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, which CARDUI helps to relieve by stimulating appetite and digestion and building physical resistance. Try CARDUI!

Father Darkleaf's Column

"I left my dad; his farm, his plow,
Because my calf became his cow;
I left my dad-'twas wrong, of course,
Because my colt became his horse.
I left my dad to sow and reap
Because my lamb became his sheep
I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork
Because my pig became his pork.
The garden truck I had to grow
Was his to sell and mine to hoe."

And: Why Another Didn't

"With dad and me it's half and half,
The cow is own was once his calf;
No town for mine, I will not bolt,
Because my horse was once his colt.
I'm going to stick right where I am
Because my sheep was once his lamb.
I'll stay with dad-- he gets my vote
Because my hog was once his shoat.
It's fifty-fifty with dad and me--
A profit-sharing company."

(Above selection handed us by Professor Crawley).

Teacher Changes Are Listed

Publisher, Times-Virginian,
Appomattox, Va.

Dear Sir,

Due to an error in transferring names from last year's teachers' list to the new list, it is necessary to make some corrections in the list of teachers published last week.

For Stonewall School, Miss Edith West's name should have appeared in place of Miss Mattie Moss'.

At the Appomattox School, Miss Edythe Martin's name should have appeared in place of Miss Louise Stratton's.

At Liberty Chapel School, Miss Virginia Alvis' name should not have appeared.

Since last week, the following changes have taken place in the teachers' list:

B. F. Saunders, Jr., Appomatox, has resigned to accept a position in Henrico county. He will be succeeded by Ellis L. Vandersluis.

Mr. Vandersluis has a B.S. degree from the V. P. I. and a Master of Science degree from the University of Virginia. He will have charge of the science department of Appomattox high school.

Miss Harriette Holly has been appointed principal of the Stonewall School.

Very truly yours,
J. A. Burke,
Superintendent.
